

Katie Cordier, Junior (eligibility-wise)
5-4 Forward/Midfield
Skillman, N.J./
Montgomery Township
Major: Nursing

Profile: Two-year letter-winner...inspirational leader who has battled injuries throughout her career...has appeared in 33 matches in her career...has four goals and four assists for 12 total points in her career...one of four seniors on the roster (is a junior eligibility-wise)...twin sister of senior midfielder Kristi Cordier...also plays lacrosse for the Royals during the spring semester...2007 (Junior Year): Returned to the lineup after missing the entire 2006 season with an injury and appeared in 14 matches and started seven times...tri-captain...finished the season with two goals on nine shot attempts...scored the match-tying goal on a ball set up by Caroline Corsaniti with less than four minutes remaining in regulation in a 1-1 tie in double overtime against Muhlenberg on September 7...scored a goal at the 27:09 mark of the first-half in a 2-1 loss to Catholic University on October 6...got off a shot on goal in a 3-2 victory over Juniata in the semifinals of the Landmark Conference tournament on October 31...was inserted into the starting lineup in place of the injured Caroline Corsaniti and got off a shot in a 4-2 win against Moravian in the championship match of the Landmark Conference tournament on November 3...2005 (First Year): started all 19 matches...finished fourth on the team in scoring with two goals and four assists for eight total points...was voted first-team all-Freedom Conference...gave the Royals' a 1-0 lead with an unassisted goal at the 6:42 mark of the first-half in a 2-1 loss to eventual Freedom Conference champion Wilkes in Edwardsville, Pennsylvania, on September 20...also scored a goal in a 5-2 victory over Susquehanna at Fitzpatrick Field on October 4...had the assist on Rosemarie DiDonato's game-winning goal in a 2-0 victory over DeSales at Fitzpatrick Field on October 15 ...also recorded assists in a 3-0 win over FDU-Florham on October 1 and in 2-1 losses to Drew and Delaware Valley on October 9 and October 29, respectively...finished third on the team in shot attempts with 30.

Awards & Honors

Freedom Conference 1st-Team Selection (2005)

#13 Kristi Cordier, Senior, 5-4
Forward, Skillman, N.J./
Montgomery Township
Major: Nursing

Profile: Three-year letter-winner...has started of 47 career matches in the midfield area...expected to provide leadership and experience as one of four seniors on the roster...twin sister of senior midfielder Katie Cordier...like her sister, has had her share of injuries...three of her four career goals have resulted in match-winners...2007 (Junior Year): Missed the final eight matches of the season after starting the first 12 due to an injury...finished the year with an assist and six shot attempts...set up Beth Stephens' match-winning goal at the 10:01 mark of the first-half in a 2-0 victory over Susquehanna on September 22...got off a season-high two shots in a 1-0 loss to Misericordia on September 24.
...2006 (Sophomore Year): appeared in 17 matches and started 12 times...scored a career-best three goals and added an assist for seven total points...scored the game-winning goal at the 23-minute mark of the first-half on the first of two assists by Eileen Sodano in the Royals 2-0 victory over Skidmore on September 2...came through with two goals in the Scranton's 3-1 win over Drew on September 30; in that match, converted a penalty kick at the 19-minute mark of the first-half to erase an early 1-0 deficit, then added the match-winning goal at the 38-minute mark of the second-half with an 18-yard blast on a ball served up by Eileen Sodano...had the assist on Jessica Beha's goal at the 52-minute mark of the second-half as the Royals went ahead 2-0 against Muhlenberg on September 9, a match Scranton eventually won 3-2 on a goal by Eileen Sodano at the 74-minute mark of the second-half...saw action in victories over Wilkes and FDU-Florham in the Freedom Conference tournament and in a 4-3 loss in overtime to Middlebury in the NCAA tournament in Danbury, Connecticut, on November 11...had 14 shot attempts, including six on goal...2005 (First Year): started 18 matches...had a goal and two assists for four total points...scored the game-winning goal at the 52:46 mark of the second-half in a 5-2 victory over Susquehanna on October 4...had the assist on Kathleen Long's match-winning goal in a 4-0 win at Lycoming on September 28...also had an assist in a 2-1 loss at Dickinson on October 12...finished tied for fourth on the team in shot attempts with 26, including 12 on goal.

Awards & Honors

Landmark Conference Academic Honor Roll (2007)