

Gretchen Sullivan, 5-4, Senior Kenmore, N.Y./Kenmore West...Three-year letter-winner...enters the spring portion of the 2008 season with a career record of 27-12 (.692) in singles and 28-17 (.622) in doubles...has posted three consecutive winning seasons in singles...has posted winning records in doubles in each of the past two seasons...is tied with fellow senior Danielle Red for 13th-place on the

Scranton all-time list for most victories in singles with 27...is sixth in Royals' history with 28 career wins in doubles...majoring in criminal justice...2008 (Senior Year): posted a 1-2 mark in singles and 2-1 record in doubles during the fall portion of the schedule...won both her singles and doubles match in Scranton's 9-0 victory over Lycoming College on September 22 at the Poly Hi Tennis Courts...played all three of her doubles matches with sophomore Caroline Curtin...2006 (Junior Year): only player on the roster to finish with a winning record in singles, going 6-5 at the number two spot in the Royal lineup...won four of her first five and seven of her first nine singles matches...teamed with freshman Deirdre Wylie to post a 9-4 record in doubles...ended the season by advancing to the semifinals of the number one doubles at the Middle Atlantic Conference individual championships by defeating Aggie Kwon and Amanda Fontana of Juniata, 8-1, and Amery Lin and Lauren Paich of Lycoming, 8-5, before dropping an 8-2 decision to eventual champions Emily Swarr and Alice Yu of Elizabethtown College...2005 (Sophomore Year): after an 0-2 start, won 12 of her final 13 matches to tie recent graduate Ashlee Wydra for the team-lead in singles victories...bounced back from a 6-7 mark in doubles in 2004 to post an 11-5 record...had a 12-match winning streak snapped with a 6-1, 6-1 loss to Jennel Yelito of Moravian College in the Flight 5 semifinals at the Middle Atlantic Conference individual championships; advanced with an 8-3 victory over Charissa Nordall of Lebanon Valley in the quarterfinals...defeated Meghan Weimer of Drew, 6-1, 6-1, and Colleen Solomon of DeSales, 6-4, 6-2, in singles and teamed with Jessica Coty to defeat Kristin Brown and Dragana Trivic of Drew, 8-5, in the Freedom Conference team tournament as the Royals advanced to the championship match for the second straight year...teamed with Coty again to defeat Kristen Sebastian and Sarah Guza of King's, 8-3, and Emma Smith and Alice Yu of Elizabethtown, 8-6, before dropping an 8-3 decision to Nicole Gruber and Leah Bradshaw of Moravian College in the Flight 2 semifinals at the Middle Atlantic Conference individual championships...2004 (Freshman Year): posted an 8-2 record in singles and a 6-7 mark in doubles...won her first six singles matches of the season... teamed with Laura Yeckley to record an 8-2 win over Colleen Solomon and Kate Ottinger; then defeated Ottinger, 6-2, 6-1, to help the Royals to a 5-4 victory over DeSales University in the semifinals of the Freedom Conference team tournament...posted a 1-1 record in both singles and doubles at the Middle Atlantic Conference individual championships.

Awards & Honors

Freedom Conference 1st-Team (2006) & 2nd-Team Selection (2004)
Middle Atlantic Conference Academic Honor Roll (2005, 2006)

Danielle Wylie, 5-4, Freshman Schnecksville, Pa./Parkland...sister of sophomore Deirdre Wylie...went undefeated in both singles and doubles competition during the fall portion of the 2008 spring schedule...majoring in biology...2008 (Freshman Year): won all three of her singles and doubles matches during the fall portion of the schedule...defeated Elizabeth Walpole of King's College, 6-2, 6-2, and Jessica Souchick of Lycoming College, 6-2, 6-0, at the number five singles and downed Laura Miller of Messiah, 6-3, 6-3, at the number three singles...teamed with fellow freshman Kelly Costello in doubles and owns wins over Walpole and Courtney Wilson of King's, 8-3; Kirstie McKeever and Souchick of Lycoming, 8-0; and Steph Knepper and Miller of Messiah, 8-2...two of her three doubles matches were contested at the number two position in the lineup.

Deirdre Wylie, 5-4, Sophomore Schnecksville, Pa./Parkland...Older sister of freshman Danielle Wylie...enters the spring portion of her sophomore year with a career record of 7-8 in singles (.467) and 11-5 in doubles (.688)...majoring in biology...2008 (Sophomore Year): posted a 1-2 record in singles and 2-1 mark in doubles during the fall portion of the schedule...moved up to the number two spot in the lineup in singles...posted a 6-0, 6-1 victory over Rebecca Reynolds and teamed with senior Danielle Red to score an 8-2 win over Amiee Snyder and Reynolds in Scranton's 9-0 victory against Lycoming on September 22 at the Poly Hi Tennis Courts...partnered with sophomore Beth Lappin to post an 8-2 victory over Annie Gotchel and Erin Kriner of Messiah College at the number three doubles in the Royals' 6-3 victory on September 24 at Poly Hi...2006 (Freshman Year): finished with six victories in singles competition, which tied junior Gretchen Sullivan and freshman Caroline Curtin for the team-lead...played all 12 of her singles matches at the number three position in the lineup...won four of her final seven matches in singles and six of her final eight doubles matches...teamed with junior Gretchen Sullivan to post a team-best 9-4 record in doubles, all of which were played at the number two position in the lineup...advanced to the semifinals of the Flight 2 doubles at Middle Atlantic Conference individual championships by defeating Aggie Kwon and Amanda Fontana of Juniata, 8-1, and Amery Lim and Lauren Paich of Lycoming, 8-5, before dropping an 8-2 decision to eventual champions Emily Swarr and Alice Yu of Elizabethtown College.